Trumbull Republicans elect Town Committee Leadership

Jack Testani re-elected to lead the Trumbull Republican Town Committee.

(Trumbull, CT)- Jack Testani, Chairman of the Trumbull Republican Town Committee, was re-elected by the Town Committee. Jack has served the TRTC as Chairman since 2008, leading the Republican Party to its landslide victory in the 2009 elections. “Two years ago, I asked the Republican Town Committee to start with a clean slate” stated Testani. “Change was needed in Trumbull and we needed to work together to build a team of Republicans that would focus on the issues at hand and making positive changes in the governing of Trumbull” continued Testani. “My priority two years ago was to elect Timothy Herbst as First Selectman and to win victory for the entire Republican Team.” “With our TRTC team, we were able to achieve our goal” “Our next focus is to elect a new Republican Governor, Attorney General, United States Senator, Congressman, State Senator and re-elect TR Rowe and Tony Hwang as State Representatives” concluded Testani.

Testani’s acceptance speech was built on the theme of People, Purpose and Places. Elected along with Testani were Vice Chairman Karen Egri, Secretary Anne Marie Evangelista, and Treasurer Carl Scarpelli. Scarpelli was elected to his 9th consecutive term at TRTC Treasurer. Testani acknowledged the People of the TRTC and their tireless efforts on working on issues of importance of the residents of Trumbull. Purpose focused on the positive message of the TRTC and how the Republican Party in Trumbull needs to remain focused on the positive and to move the agenda and mandate given by the voters in the 2009 elections forward. Places refers to the community involvement initiatives currently under development by the TRTC. “We need to get out in the community and continue to make a positive difference”, said Testani. The complete acceptance speech is available on the TRTC website www.trumbullgop.org.
